

Code of Conduct

The Pony Club Association of Victoria's Code of Conduct outlines behaviours that are expected of every person involved in our organisation, as well as identifying the types of behaviours that will not be tolerated.

It applies to members, officials, adult supporters, coaches, instructors, spectators, family, friends, administrators and other members of our diverse pony club community.

It applies to all PCAV, Zone and Club sanctioned activities.

The Pony Club Association of Victoria's Code of Conduct supports everyone to have fun in a friendly and inclusive environment.

Breaching the Code of Conduct

PCAV, Zones and Clubs treat breaches of this Code seriously.

If you breach this Code, or assist someone else to breach the Code, the breach will be investigated. If it is determined that a breach has occurred, your Club, Zone or PCAV, as appropriate, will address the behaviour in line with the circumstances of the individual case. This could include coaching the people involved to assist them to recognise why the behaviours are inappropriate and what other responses are more appropriate or disciplinary action which ranges from a verbal or written warning to suspension of membership or even, termination of membership.

There are some breaches of the Code that PCAV considers to be serious misconduct and will not tolerate. Serious breaches are likely to result in suspension or termination of membership, and may lead to referral to the police. Some examples are

- Serious harassment, discrimination or bullying
- Serious safety breaches, including violence of any form or threats of violence

Code of Conduct

- Misleading or defrauding PCAV, Zone or Club
- Horse abuse or cruelty
- Theft or vandalism
- A serious breach of the law
- Intoxication or drug use

Reporting a Breach

If you genuinely believe that conduct in breach of this Code has occurred, we want you to raise your concerns.

Club members who are concerned about conduct should raise their concerns with their Club's officials. If the conduct involves your Club's officials, raise it with your Zone Representative.

Sometimes there may be exceptional circumstances when someone has used this process and the situation has not been rectified or the breach is so serious that they feel unable to raise their concerns through normal channels. PCAV's Code of Conduct email address [\[codeofconduct@ponyclubvic.org.au\]](mailto:codeofconduct@ponyclubvic.org.au) or office@ponyclubvic.org.au provides a channel to raise breaches of the Code in these rare and exceptional circumstances.

Managing a Suspected Breach

Information regarding managing a suspected breach of the Code of Conduct can be found on PCAV's website under the Code of Conduct heading or by contacting your Zone Representative.
